China Ready Workshop - Auckland

Agenda Overview

Join Tourism New Zealand for an overview of our activity in the China market. We will provide key insights and information, helping you to build a deeper understanding of the China market and opportunities to work together.

This will be a working session where you will hear from Tourism New Zealand and businesses active in the Chinese market. From this session you should gain a better understanding of how you can promote your business in China. We will also cover ways for you to leverage our work through your channels and of course have time for questions.
